

2025 Status of PDABs and Legislative Forecast

The first Prescription Drug Affordability Board (PDAB) was established in Maryland in 2019 and since that time, more PDABs have been created in states across the country. The maps below aim to help patients and advocates track the latest activity.

Existing Prescription Drug Affordability Boards

Prescription Drug Affordability Boards exist in many states, though activity and scope vary broadly in each location. The most active PDABs are currently Colorado, Maryland, Oregon, and Washington.

Yellow: State with PDAB

Blue: State with a PDAB that has authority to implement an upper payment limit

Updated January 23, 2025

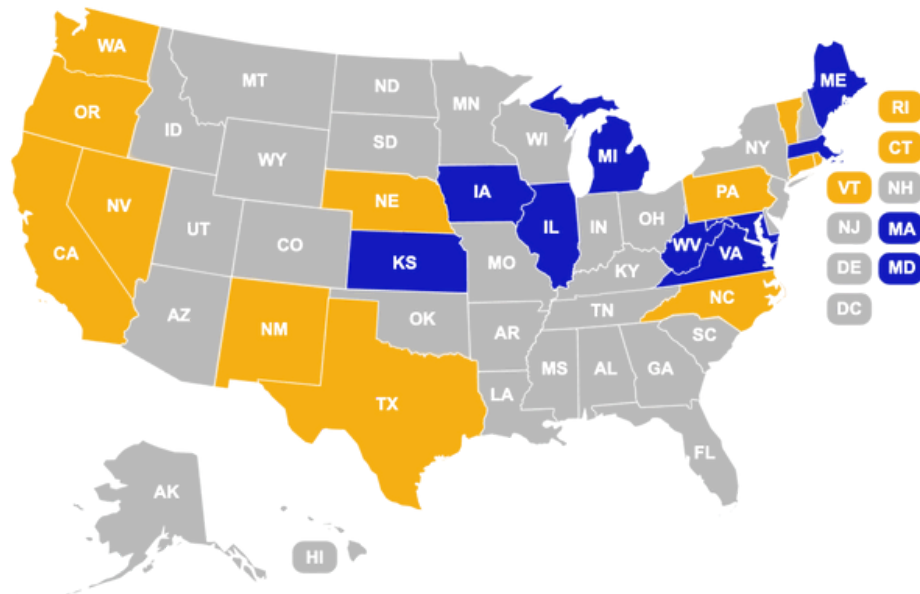

Legislative Outlook for 2025

The creation of Prescription Drug Affordability Boards is a growing concern, with more states each year introducing legislation proposing PDAB implementation.

Yellow: State with potential for PDAB legislation in 2025

Blue: State that has introduced PDAB legislation in 2025

Legislative outlook data courtesy of Value of Care Coalition.

Updated February 27, 2025

The Ensuring Access through Collaborative Health (EACH) and Patient Inclusion Council (PIC) is a two-part coalition that unites patient organizations and allied groups (EACH), as well as patients and caregivers (PIC), to advocate for drug affordability policies that benefit patients.